

Have a Good Bidet!

It looks like a sink, but it's not the right height,
And for washing your feet, just isn't quite right.
If they wanted two sinks they could have done better.
Perhaps a neat place to rinse out a sweater.
Why do they have such a useless contraption?
It would stake a good pot with a little adaption.
For all I can see, it just takes up space.
Though it's not a bad spot to put your suitcase.

Lunch at the Paradore

Of all things in Spain there's none I like more,
Than doing lunch at the Paradore.
Whether lunch is for 2 or perhaps 34,
I love doing lunch at the Paradore.
They always have Tapas, served by the score,
I love doing lunch at the Paradore.
The spectacular views, go on more and more,
I love doing lunch at the Paradore.
The salads are hot, and cold soup I adore
I love doing lunch at the Paradore.
If they offer you lamb, don't ask for more,
I love doing lunch at the Paradore.

Thoughts While Waiting!

You rush off the bus to get into line.
It's almost too late whenever it's "time."
Throughout the trip, in all of those places,
You don't know your friends if you can't see their faces.
You learn their rear features while waiting instead,
'Cause all that you see is the back of their head.

A Rose is a Rose

What's in a name said someone of fame, we have a varied few,
We have flowers: Rose and Lily, and Smiths we have just two,
Of all initial letters, the J's we do not lack,
We even have a Jackie, but not a single Jack,
But Joan and Jones aren't plural, and Judy goes with Sam,
We've got a Buck but not much doe, we've had enough of Lamb,
Of all the names we have the most, one will win the gong,
They're big and tall, but Short most of all.
Of Shorts we came up too long!!

Interview With a Glowworm at the Waitomo Caves

I said to the little worm, why do you glow?
She whispered to me. I really don't know,
Why do you fish for things in the air?
The better to find me a luncheon to share,
Why do you stay there perched in the dark?
It's the only place that they let me park,
Why do you switch your night lights to dim?
I don't have a glimmer, it comes from within,
What part of your body does all the glowing?
I think it's my head, I have no way of knowing,
Why do you wait so long to have sex?
We have terrible headaches!
